

November 8, 2019

Chesterfield Road is scheduled to be paved on Saturday, November 9, 2019, dependent on favorable weather conditions.

Crews will be working to complete the project as soon as possible. We appreciate your understanding and patience while the final course of asphalt is set for this project.

City representatives will be in the area to do their best to assist residents with access during the construction.